DECISIONS CALLED FOR.

A decision is asked upon the legality of the rule adopted by the last session of the Conference, found on page 23 of the minutes. Had the Conference the right under the Discipline to pass the resolution?

Sept. 29, 1871.

W. T. POYNTER,

Chairman Joint Board of Finance.

In my opinion the 7th item of Sec. 5, Chap. 9, of the Book of Discipline, empowering an Annual Conference "To adopt its own method of raising money to pay those who by the rules and usages of the church have claims upon it," has reference exclusively to the collections for the superannuated Preachers, widows and orphans, and for the Bishops. It follows that no Annual Conference has the right to pass mandatory resolutions interfering with the rights or duties of District Stewards, or the Stewards of Circuits and Stations, as laid down in Sections 1 and 2, of Chap. 9, of the Book of Discipline.

Paris, Ky. Oct. 3, 1871.

W. M. WIGHTMAN.

The discipline makes it the duty of the Board of District Stewards to assess and apportion the claim of the Presiding Elder. By the rule passed by the last Conference the power of assessing said claim was taken from the said District Board. Have the Joint Board of Finance the right to take the assessment thus made after the Bishop has decided said rule illegal, or to make an assessment?

C. W. MILLER.

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The Committee of the whole, on the subject of education, beg leave to report the following action :

The Committee had before it a resolution from the Lexington District Conference, requesting that the Annual Conference call an Educational Convention, to be held at Millersburg, sometime the ensuing summer, which, after having been duly considered, the following was adopted :

Resolved, 1st, That the Kentucky Annual Conference call a Methodist Educational Convention, of the State of Kentucky and Western Virginia, to meet at Millersburg at such time as the Conference may determine, and that it be composed exclusively of laymen, and that the ratio of representation be fixed by the Conference.

Resolved, 2d, That the Louisville and Western Virginia Conferences be requested to send delegates to this Convention, on the ratio of representation adopted by this Conference, or such other basis of representation as they may respectively elect.

Resolved, 3d, That the Secretary of this Annual Conference be directed to communicate the action upon this subject to the aforesaid Conferences, and request their cooperation.

H. A. M. HENDERSON, Chairman.

(No. 2.)

EDUCATION.

Your Committee beg leave to report that we have had our educational interests before us, and we find occasion for gratification in the condition and prospects of the institutions, under our fostering care, concerning which we have official information.

THE KENTUCKY WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Gives much promise to the Church, of future usefulness. The commencement exercises, last June, were largely attended by audiences enthusiastic in their expressions of approval of all that occurred. The discipline is admirably executed for the preservation of order, and the instruction is thorough and satisfactory.

Professor A. G. Murphy, acting President, during the last Academic year, proved himself a most judicious and efficient executive officer, fulfilling his onerous duties with great affability, and at a considerable expense of personal sacrifice. He is entitled to the thanks of this Conference for the able manner in which he performed the duties of presiding officer of the faculty.

The election of Rev. Benj. Arbogast, A. M., to the Presidency, and the happy auspices which attended his inauguration are matters of congratulation to the friends of the University. Already distinguished as an educator, organizer and disciplinarian, he brings to his office the prestige of a name honored in the Educational history of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Under his administration we have everything to hope for, as related to the future career of this institution.

The accession of Professor John Darby, A. M., to the chair of Natural Sciences, adds valuable strength to the corps of instruction.

The Faculty of the College is thoroughly organized, and all the facilities of instruction are now offered to be found in first class collegiate institutions. Profs. Murphy, Theis and Brown remain—a fact that furnishes occasion for additional cheer.

THE MILLERSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE,

Under the accomplished Presidency of Judge Wm. H. Savage, A. M., has enjoyed a year of encouraging prosperity, and has opened the current session with increased promise of benefit to the cause of consecrated education. It gives no mean presage of furnishing the church, within our bounds, with all the facilities required to fit our daughters for intelligent society; to become "as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace."

The principal has that peculiar grace of manner and delicate appreciation of the fine sensibilities of woman, which eminently fit him for the position which he not only fills with honor, but adorns. The teachers are qualified and selected, by the discriminating principal, with special regard to their aptitude to instruct the female mind. The Boarding Department is conducted in such a manner as not only to afford a pleasant home for the pupils, but, also, to impress them in such a way as to prepare them for the appreciation of good housewifery.

The Chairman of your committee had the pleasure of being present during the examination and commencement exercises, and as a member of your visiting committee, to critically observe the proficiency of the pupils, and he has no hesitation in saying that he has never witnessed a more gratifying exhibition, on a similar occasion.

We, therefore, unreservedly commend the Millersburg Female College to the patronage of our people, in the confident expectation that our representations will be fully verified by all who, experimentally, test their accuracy.

THE LOUISVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE,

Under the Presidency of the Rev. Dr. Prettyman, is every way worthy of public confidence, and we cheerfully commend it to the favor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

THE SHELBYVILLE DISTRICT CONFERENCE RESOLUTION.

The Committee having had before it a resolution from the Shelbyville District Conference, pertaining to the provision of some means for the education of worthy, indigent young men, seeking scholastic advantages, after considering the matter,

Resolved, 1st, That this Conference refer the subject to the respective District Conferences, for their action in the premises, and if the suggestion is adopted, to assess the amount proposed to be raised, and refer it to the meeting of the District Stewards for an equitable distribution of the gross amount to the several charges composing the District.

Resolved, 2d, That a Central Committee, appointed by the District Conference, shall meet and decide upon the claims of those who may apply for the benefit of this fund.

THE UNION OF THE KENTUCKY AND LOUISVILLE ANNUAL CONFERENCES IN THE OWNERSHIP OF THE KENTUCKY WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

The Committee in considering the interest of the "Kentucky Wesleyan University" determined to recommend to the Conference the propriety of an immediate proposal for a coequal and unqualified partnership of the Louisville Annual Conference in the institution, and that a Commission of three be appointed to attend the approaching session of said Conference, to invite them to such a union of interests. If this suggestion should be approved by the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences, we propose the formation of a joint Board of Education, and the opening of one field to the Agent who may be subsequently appointed to canvass for the further endowment of the University.

H. A. M. HENDERSON, Chairman.

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' HOME.

In view of the history and present condition of the Widows' and Orphans' Home, of the M. E. Church, South, in the State of Kentucky, as presented to us by Rev. G. W. Brush, of the Louisville Conference, and as contained in the Charter, By-Laws and Rules of Order, which he has presented to this Conference; we ask leave to present the following:

1st. That the Kentucky Annual Conference, of the M. E. Church, South, receive with pleasure the information thus furnished, in regard to the organization of an institution in said Church, so inseparable from the principles, duties and practices of the Christian Religion.

2nd. That the organization, by order of the managers, of the Ladies' Department of the "The Widows' and Orphans' Home," indicates to us the wisdom of said Board, and will, under God, go far, we doubt not, to insure the final success of the noble enterprise.

3d. That this Conference will, with gratitude to God, for the existence of such institutions in our land, cooperate with the Louisville Annual Conference in its patronage of the "Widows' and Orphans' Home," of the M. E. Church, South, in the State of Kentucky.

Signed,

ROBT. HINER,
T. F. VANMETER,
D. WELBURN,
C. W. MILLER.

("B.")

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Perhaps there has been no period of time since the Reformation, that the Bible has been so much loved and so much hated, as at the present. But the Bible divinely inspired of God, and well authenticated to man, has nothing to fear from the exhibitions of this hatred, yet evidently this is no time for supineness or indifference; this hatred has developed overt opposition, and should be promptly met by all the lovers of God's Word.

The Bible has a mission to fulfil, doing its own appropriate work; God has given the Bible for the whole world, and God has strangely opened up the whole world for the dissemination of the Bible, thus throwing a solemn responsibility upon the Church.

The American Bible Society presents facilities, on a grand scale, for giving the Bible to man universally; publishing the common accepted version of the scriptures, without note or comment, in fifty-eight different languages; selling all its publications at cost, and making the book of God the cheapest book in the world, and having all the machinery in successful operation, through its thousands of auxiliaries and depositories; through its agents and canvassers, at home and abroad.

Besides the Society is now engaged in a thorough canvass of the whole country. This is done by states and counties.

About three-fourths of our state has been explored, with the following results:

Families visited,.....	80,815.
“ found destitute,.....	21,352.
Destitute families supplied,....	9,854.

There are some remarkable features connected with this home work. About eight hundred families of Romanists have been supplied with our Bible; the placing the Scriptures on our Railroads, furnishing Poor and Alms Houses, Orphans' and Widows' Homes, Mission Sunday Schools, etc.

This good work is still in progress.

In conclusion your Committee offer the following resolutions:

1. That we heartily endorse the American Bible Society and its noble work, and cordially welcome its authorized agents.
2. That as members of the Conference, we will preach to each of our congregations, on the Bible, and the importance of searching the Holy Scriptures, and take annual collections in those congregations not visited by the General Agents.
3. That we recognise with pleasure the efficient services of our Agent, Dr. G. S. Savage, and request our Presiding Bishop to appoint him to this position.

G. S. SAVAGE, Chairman.

(C.)

SABBATH SCHOOL REPORT.

Resolved, 1st, That we instruct, in accordance with the discipline, all our preachers to organize denominational Sabbath Schools in all churches where it is possible to do so, on purely Methodistical principles. In order to do this effectually,

Resolved, 2d, That we adopt in all our schools, (1) the Lesson papers; (2) Teachers' Magazine; (3) the Sunday School Visitor and Our Little People, published by Dr. Redford at Nashville, and edited by Dr. Haygood.

Resolved, 3d, That we disapprove of, and protest against, the practice of purchasing Sabbath School books of other imprints than our own, and that we will always endeavor to secure our Sabbath School literature from our own publishing houses.

Resolved, 4th, That we recommend the holding of a Sabbath School Convention in every county in our bounds, at a convenient time, during the coming year, to which all earnest Sabbath School workers shall be cordially invited. The object of said convention to be the securing a more hearty co-operation of the friends of this important work.

J. RAND, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The injunction of the Apostle Paul to Timothy "Give attendance to reading," was never more needed by the Church than at present. An essay might be profitably written on this subject, but Conference reports are desired to be short.

A most deplorable ignorance of the word of God prevails in many households, even where Bibles are found, because they are seldom, if ever, carefully read.

The few good books that are occasionally met with, in some families considered religious, are often suffered to lie unopened for years, while trashy novels and newspaper tales are eagerly devoured.

The only periodicals, in many instances, are magazines profusely illustrated with pictures of ever-changing and ridiculous fashions, which tend to foster a vain and foolish love of display, that falls like blight and mildew on piety, and the treasury of the Lord is defrauded to gratify a depraved taste. Thus results a wicked extravagance in dress and adornment, while all the enterprises of the church are allowed to languish and decline.

Some will take one or two secular papers, mainly to keep themselves informed of the state of the market, but persistently refuse, saying they can not afford, to subscribe for a religious weekly, which chronicles the progress of the church and its efforts for the conversion of the world.

Consequently the children in such families grow up in ignorance of those things which they most need to know. It is not surprising then, that they are indifferent to the church, and unconcerned about their own salvation.

For the want of suitable religious reading, the Lord's day is often spent in frivolous gossip and idle visiting, greatly to the detriment of growth in a religious life.

To meet this want there is an abundant supply. To say nothing of many other valuable works issued by our publishing house, Redford's "History of the Organization of the M. E. Church, South," is highly interesting, and should be most extensively circulated. Dr. Ralston's "Elements of Divinity," in its greatly enlarged and improved form, has now become a standard work of permanent value. So also are the following works, by two other members of our own Conference, the "Ditzler-Wilkes Debate," and those admirable little treatises on "Baptismal Regeneration" and "Points of Controversy" by Rev. C. W. Miller, A. M.

The annual exhibit of the Book Agent shows a most encouraging improvement in the condition of our Publishing interests during the past year, notwithstanding the unusual financial depression throughout the country. We again congratulate Dr. Redford on his success.

The Nashville "Christian Advocate," to be still further enlarged and improved in form, claims, under its learned, indefatigable and veteran editor, as our recognised organ, our first and heartiest support. Nor can we too highly commend the "Sunday School Magazine," "Sunday School Visitor," "Our Little People," the "Lesson Papers" and, as a Sunday School singing book, "The Amaranth," all as model publications in their department. We urge their introduction into all our Sunday Schools and families.

We sincerely regret to learn that the "New Monthly" is not succeeding according to anticipations, and hope that before the close of the year, the subscription list will be so increased as to justify the Agent in continuing its publication.

The "St. Louis Christian Advocate" is cordially recommended to the patronage of our people. With the late addition of the vigorous pen of Dr. Bond to its columns, it is edited with unsurpassed ability.

The "Southern Review," under the editorial charge of the distinguished Dr. A. T. Bledsoe, has already taken its place in the very front ranks of great quarterlies, not only in this country but in Europe. Its merits can not be too highly extolled, nor can we too strongly urge its extensive circulation. It also comes from the press of the South-Western Publishing Company, and is issued in the finest style of typographical art.

It gives us pleasure still to welcome to our territory the weekly advent of the "Baltimore Episcopal Methodist." It deserves, and we trust will receive, an enlarged patronage.

Various improvements are promised in the "Methodist Miscellany," published at Covington, and it will, more than ever, merit our continued support. Let it be encouraged.

The following resolution was on motion added to the Report:
 Resolved, By the Kentucky Annual Conference, that the South-Western Publishing Company be requested to place in the cities of Lexington and Covington a case containing samples of all the Sunday School books. approved by our Sunday School Secretary, that selections may be made and books ordered from those samples.

Respectfully submitted,

MISSIONARY REPORT.

Whereas our Missionary Anniversaries have in many instances been conducted in a spirit of levity, and on the superficial plan of merely appealing to our sympathies as aroused or excited for the moment, and not on the true plan of an intelligent conviction of duty, therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly protest against and disapprove of the manner in which so many of our Missionary Meetings are conducted, and request that hereafter they be conducted in a way calculated to instruct our people in the details of our work, and the uses to which our means are appropriated, so as to inspire both confidence and a holy enlightened zeal for the cause.

The command of our Lord to go and preach the gospel to every creature, is imperative upon the Church.

If true to this commission, she must go into "regions beyond" proclaiming the unsearchable riches of Jesus Christ to a dying world; make war upon the powers of darkness; pull down the strongholds of sin and Satan; send forth the light of the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ to all who sit in the region and shadow of death; and unfurl the standard of the Cross to every breeze.

Are we as a denomination of Christians doing our whole duty in this direction? The fact that with a membership of over half a million, only $88,673 61 have been laid upon the Altar of sacrifice the past year to evangelize the nations, (less than twenty cents to the member) should arouse the conscience of every Southern Methodist, and stimulate to renewed zeal in this great work.

Resolved, That each Church appoint one of its members whose special duty it shall be to see each member, and receive his contribution to missions.

Resolved, That the preacher be required to preach at each of his appointments upon the subject of Missions, preliminary to the taking up of the collection in each particular Church.

Resolved, That one of our number be elected to deliver a sermon on Missions at our next session.

Resolved, That the editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate be requested to appropriate a small space weekly, in the Advocate, for the publication of statistics and facts in regard to the Christian Missions of the world.

W. T. POYNTER, Chairman Joint Board of Finance.

The Joint Board of Finance believing that the operations of the Financial Plan, adopted at the last session of the Conference and found on page 23 of the Minutes, marked "F," has accomplished good, offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That said plan be published in the minutes of the present session, and that the preachers be advised to urge its adoption upon all their Church Conferences.

W. T. POYNTER, Chairman Joint Board of Finance.

FINANCIAL PLAN.

Let the stewards of each work, at the earliest practical moment after Conference, make the allowance of the preacher in charge, and add to this not only the claims of the presiding elder, but also all the collections ordered by the Annual Conference and apportioned by the District stewards, and let them divide this aggregate among the different churches.

Let the preacher, at the first Church Conference thereafter of each church, cause the amount thus apportioned to be stated. Let the Conference appoint three or five discreet men (other than the stewards, if possible), as a committee, who shall, with the church register before them, assess each member the amount which, in the judgment of the committee, is equitable.

Let each member be notified of his assessments, either by reading it publicly, or by written notice, and his approval secured. If any do not agree to their assessments, let the deficit be apportioned as before.

The stewards should take this assessment list, and, dividing the names according to circumstances and convenience, call regularly, either once a quarter, monthly, or weekly, upon every member, and collect the assessment against each member.

At the close of the year, let the Secretary of each Church Conference read publicly the assessment against the members, with the amount paid by each; and if there be a deficiency, and it can not be raised, let the preacher and the presiding elder share pro rata with the different demands embraced in the original assessment.

(F-2.)

The Joint Board of Finance desire to call the attention of the preachers and official members to Sec. 2., Chapter 9. of the Discipline, and to remind them that in all cases the Preacher and Presiding Elder must share pro rata in the amounts collected for the support of the ministry.

W. T. POYNTER, Chairman Joint Board of Finance.

IN MEMORIAM.

Rev. Peter Taylor was born in Billings, Lancashire, England, Feb., 28, 1809; was baptised in infancy by Rev. Mr. Carr, minister of the Church of England; came to America in 1817; joined the M. E. Church in the Spring of 1830, and was appointed class leader the following fall; after serving a time he was licensed to exhort, and then to preach.

He was admitted in the Kentucky Annual Conference in 1834; ordained Deacon by Bishop Soule in 1836, and Elder by Bishop Morris in 1838.

Brother Taylor was a strong preacher of the old Methodist type, and wherever he went was acceptable and greatly beloved, always leaving a hallowed influence behind him. He was an earnest, practical preacher, seldom failing to reach the hearts of his audience, therefore his labors were eminently successful, and hundreds of souls can point to him as the instrument in God's hands of their conversion.

During his itineracy, he filled many of the most important circuits and stations in the Kentucky Conference to the entire satisfaction of all concerned, but God, in his all-wise providence, saw fit to arrest his labors and lead him through deep waters of affliction.

The wife of his youth, the partner of his early days, and her children, one by one, until none was left, and three children by his present wife, all dying in glorious hope of everlasting life, have preceeded him to the better world; and he too for nearly twenty years has been greatly afflicted in body, but though set aside from the active work, yet he has not been idle; whenever opportunity presented itself, he went forth in the discharge of his ministerial duties, declaring the glad tidings of salvation to the sinner, comforting the saint, and administering the balm of consolation to the distressed from the pulpit and in the social circle.

But now he rests from his labors; his warfare is over; he has gone to receive his crown, and meet his loved ones in glory.

He sweetly fell asleep, in the arms of Jesus, at his residence in Lewis Co., Ky., August 22d, 1871.

"The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

S. L. ROBERTSON, }

IN MEMORIAM.

The Rev. Wm. H. Parker was born in the State of Virginia, in the year 1799. His parents, who were Presbyterians, removed to Ohio while he was still a boy. In that new and stirring population he developed into an active and industrious man. Many of his neighbors sent their produce, every Autumn, to New Orleans in flat boats. The love of excitement and a curiosity to see that semi-tropical region, and the hope of bettering his fortune, induced him to make repeated voyages to that distant city. Indeed so often were these journeys repeated, that when the steamboats were introduced he found ready employment as a pilot, but as he thought of settling down for life he learned the trade of a cooper, and for many years, both in Ohio and Kentucky, carried on the business.

The date of his first marriage and the maiden name of his first wife are unknown to us. They lived in the town of Dover, Mason Co., Ky., for many years, where some of his children still reside.

Brother Parker was fully grown to maturity before he embraced religion. His soul abhorred the views of the plan of Salvation as presented by Calvinism. But when he heard the gospel from the lips of Methodist preachers, he realized the Grace of God in offering salvation to sinners, and loathed himself for having so persistently rejected salvation. His thirsty soul panted for the Waters of Life, and through faith in the blood of Jesus was satisfied. So assiduous was he to know the length and breadth, and height, and depth of the plan of salvation, that even while engaged at his trade he always kept such books as Wesley's Notes and Clarke's Commentaries on his bench, that he might glean some grains of knowledge while for a moment at any time he stopped to rest his body.

Thus he soon became Class Leader and Steward in his society. The church thought proper to license him as a local preacher, as such he was ordained Deacon at Maysville in 1854, and in 1859 recommended him to the Kentucky Conference. He was admitted and having filled his probation, was admitted into full connection in Paris, in 1861. As a preacher he was studious, faithful and full of zeal; as a pastor he was diligent.

At Florence in 1867 the wife of his youth died, still he was in labors abundant.

While on the Orangeburg work in 1869 he married Miss Nancy Rash, whose life has vindicated the wisdom of the choice.

At the last session of this Conference he was appointed to the New Columbus circuit, where he labored assiduously, both in the pulpit and from house to house, till stricken down. During his sickness he was patient in suffering, but grieved that he could not be at work. The writer visited and staid with him on the night of May 21st, and though he suffered much in body; his soul seemed filled with the love of God. He died May 28th, 1871, and is buried at Florence, Ky., by the side of his first wife.

P. E. KAVANAUGH.
